WHY THIS GUIDE TO DUTCH JAZZ?

We would like to give you a quick insight into all the Dutch acts at North Sea Jazz this year. This booklet can help you find new surprising Dutch bands and artists, and you will find out The Netherlands has a lot to offer in the field of jazz. The booklet is an initiative of Buma Cultuur, Dutch Jazz Day and North Sea Jazz Festival.

Buma Cultuur is dedicated to music and composers from The Netherlands.

This is the fifth year in a row that it has organized Jazz Day. This day is the kick-off of two weeks of jazz in Rotterdam with North Sea Round Town and North Sea Jazz.

We hope to see you around the Dutch shows.

Hein Van de Geyn
(Marcel van den Broek)

JAZZ DAY

Jazz Day is the biggest Dutch jazz network event, where the entire jazz sector comes together in a dynamic setting. Jazz Day is, next to composers and musicians, attended by representatives of national and international clubs, venues and festivals, as well as booking agencies, record labels, management companies, media and delegations from several foreign countries. www.jazzdag.nl

BUMA CULTUUR

Buma Cultuur supports and promotes Dutch music copyright in both The Netherlands and key export markets for Dutch music. Buma Cultuur is founded by the Dutch collecting society Buma.

Buma/Stemra is the collection society for music authors in The Netherlands and represents the interests of its members worldwide. www.bumacultuur.nl

NORTH SEA JAZZ FESTIVAL

At the world-famous North Sea Jazz Festival, the audience can enjoy the past, present and future of jazz every year for three days in Rotterdam. This year more than a thousand musicians, spread out over 150 performances and thirteen different stages, are expected. www.northseajazz.com

KYTECRASH FEAT. ERIC VLOEIMANS & COLIN BENDERS

Gospel - Blues - Soul - Funk - Hiphop - Modern Creative

Martijn Kapel

Hein 'Pax' Bal (vocals); Colin Benders (flugelhorn); Eric Vloeimans (trumpet); Jeroen van Vliet, Niels Broos (keyboard); Gulli Gudmunsson (bass); Jasper van Hulten (drums); Mathijn den Duijf (dubs).

Colin Benders, also known as Kyteman, is one of the two "Carte Blanche" artists this year. North Sea Jazz allows "Carte Blanche" artists to be present on all festival days. They will be doing different performances to show off their versatility. Today, Kyteman will bring the popular project Kytocrash to North Sea Jazz. It is a very special collaboration between Eric Vloeimans, Holland's greatest jazz trumpet player of this era, and Colin Benders, the greatest pop/cross-over trumpeter. Vloeimans used to be Colin's teacher. But those days are over: both performers are well up to the challenge and were able to make Kytocrash a successful project already.

SAT 9 JULY 19:00 - 20:15 MAAS

TINEKE POSTMA QUARTET

Modern Creative

Rein Ouwehand

Tineke Postma (alto sax, soprano sax); Marc van Roon (piano); Frans van der Hoeven (double bass); Martijn Vink (drums).

Saxophonist Tineke Postma is one of the most notable export hits of the Dutch jazz scene. After graduating cum laude at the Amsterdam conservatory, a truly fabulous solo career soon followed. Postma took to heart the lessons she learned in New York (from David Liebman and Chris Potter, among others) and integrated them into her own recognizable style. She has steadily built up an impressive oeuvre. Postma's fourth CD The Traveller (2009) was highly praised all over the world. The same is true of her new album The Dawn of Light that came out earlier this year. She recorded the new CD with her quartet. A guest role is reserved for Grammy Award winner and friend Esperanza Spalding, who sings the song Leave Me A Place Underground on the latest album.

PETER BEETS & THE JAZZORCHESTRA OF THE CONCERTGEBOUW CONDUCTED BY HENK MEUTGEERT

Straight-ahead jazz - Bop - Modern Creative

Ronald Knapp

Henk Meutgeert (conductor); Peter Beets (piano); Joris Roelofs, Jorg Kaaij, Simon Rigter, Sjoerd Dijkhuizen, Juan Martinez (saxophone); Jeroen Rol, Bert Boeren, Martien de Kam (trombone); Jelle Schouten, Wim Both, Rini Swinkels, Ruud Breuls, Jan van Duikeren (trumpet); Martijn van Iterson (guitar); Frans van Geest (double bass).

For a long time, the low countries had to do without any line ups that performed in the tradition of the American big band. That is, until pianist-arranger Henk Meutgeert, bassist Frans van Geest and drummer Hans Dekker founded the New Concert Big Band in 1996! It was rechristened Jazzorchestra of the Concertgebouw after their collaboration with the Concertgebouw. Since then, the orchestra hasn't just conquered The Netherlands, but also every other continent, note by note. It has a global reputation, with a repertoire varying from Gershwin to Ellington, and an impressive collection of original pieces. The 2010 album Blues For The Date, consists entirely of original compositions by the orchestra's regular pianist Peter Beets. Peter Beets and the Jazzorchestra received the Edison Jazz national for this album.

ALAIN CLARK

Gospel - Blues - Soul - Funk - Hiphop

Bas Prinke

Alain Clark (vocals); Dane Clark (vocals); Roza Lozica, Rob de Nijs (backing vocals); Rogier Wagenaar (guitar); Remko Kuhne (keyboard); Pablo Penton (bass); Lean Robbemont (drums).

The big breakthrough for Alain Clark came with his 2007 album Live It Out. The second single, Father And Friend - a duet with his own father Dane - stormed the charts. Even renowned session drummer Steve Gadd played on the record; not bad for what many considered to be Clark's real debut. His second English-language album Colorblind, from 2010, was recorded in the Galaxy Studios in Belgium. With it, the singer continued his victory march: he is now considered one of the most popular and bestselling artists in The Netherlands. But it doesn't end here. Clark also signed an international deal and his music was released in the UK, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium and Italy, among other countries.

“ One of Europe’s most vibrant and creative jazz scenes has developed in the Netherlands over the past 50 years. Pioneers of “The New Dutch Swing” - Han Bennink, Misha Mengelberg and the late Willem Breuker have achieved international recognition for their singular contributions to this music; contributions that have served to open doors for subsequent generations of wonderful Dutch musicians. ”

Ken Pickering - Artistic Director
Vancouver International Jazz Festival

“ My Dutch jazz experiences have always been very enjoyable. Artists such as Han Bennink, Jesse Van Ruller, Michiel Borstlap or the late Willem Breuker, just to name a few, have always brought a special touch to the wide jazz world, with a very high level of creativity and talent. ”

Johanne Bougie - Programming manager
Montreal Jazz Festival

“ In Europe, many new trends in jazz originated from Dutch jazz. For generations the Dutch jazz scene and its musicians deliver natural interpretations of music from the U.S. Whether it’s music from the mainstream, innovative avant-garde or a completely new form of jazz; within the European jazz scene, the Dutch scene remains one of the leading. ”

MCN COMPOSITION PROJECT DIRK BRUINSMA - PUMPORGAN: HIJINKS & JITTERS

Modern Creative

Andreas Terlaak

John Dikeman (tenor sax, baritone sax); Dirk Bruinsma (alto sax, bass); Jasper Stadhouders (guitar, bass); Andrea Taeggi (keyboard, percussion, electronics); Onno Govaert (drums, percussion).

Each year, the North Sea Jazz Festival commissions a promising Dutch jazz composer to write a free composition. The project is a collaboration with Music Center The Netherlands (MCN) and the Fund For The Performing Arts (Fonds Podiumkunsten). This year, altsaxophonist and bass guitarist Dirk Bruinsma gets to perform his new work at the festival together with his band Pumporgan.

Bruinsma has a background in avantgardist rock and jazz and is influenced by dance music, especially directed towards the energetic power of rhythm and blues, rock 'n' roll and swing.

MONA LISA OVERDRIVE & FULLDUPLEX

Modern Creative

Joke Schot

Mete Erker (tenor sax, soprano sax, bass clarinet, effects); Jasper Blom (tenor sax); Louk Boudesteijn (trombone, effects); Ferhan Otay, Reinier Baas (guitar); Rein Godefroy (keyboard); Arno Krijger (organ); Michel van Schie (bass); Stefan Lievestro (double bass); Pim Dros, Hans van Oosterhout (drums).

Two top Dutch bands on a single stage and sharing the limelight: that can only happen at the North Sea Jazz Festival. Bassist Stefan Lievestro is a master of improvised music. With Mona Lisa Overdrive, he has been making “jazz rock of the future” as reviewers like to call it, since 2007. With tenor saxophonist Jasper Blom and organist Arno Krijger among its members, this group is able to set itself apart by playing adventurous and challenging compositions within an explosive framework. Fullduplex is the band of trombonist Louk Boudesteijn who is also the musical leader and a co-founder of the Rotterdam Jazz Orchestra. With Fullduplex, Boudesteijn has formed a band for which the musicians have been carefully selected. This results in the playing of their own compositions in which electro, funk, rock and improvised jazz are interwoven in an ingenious manner. Anything goes, as the musicians themselves say.

Let's meet at Jazz Day 2012

Jazz Day is the biggest Dutch network event, where everyone of the jazz sector comes together, it is the perfect place to meet!

The organization offers a special program including extensive matchmaking sessions, trade-dinners and cocktail hours, making Jazz Day the perfect opportunity to do business with the flourishing Dutch jazz industry and its international counterparts.

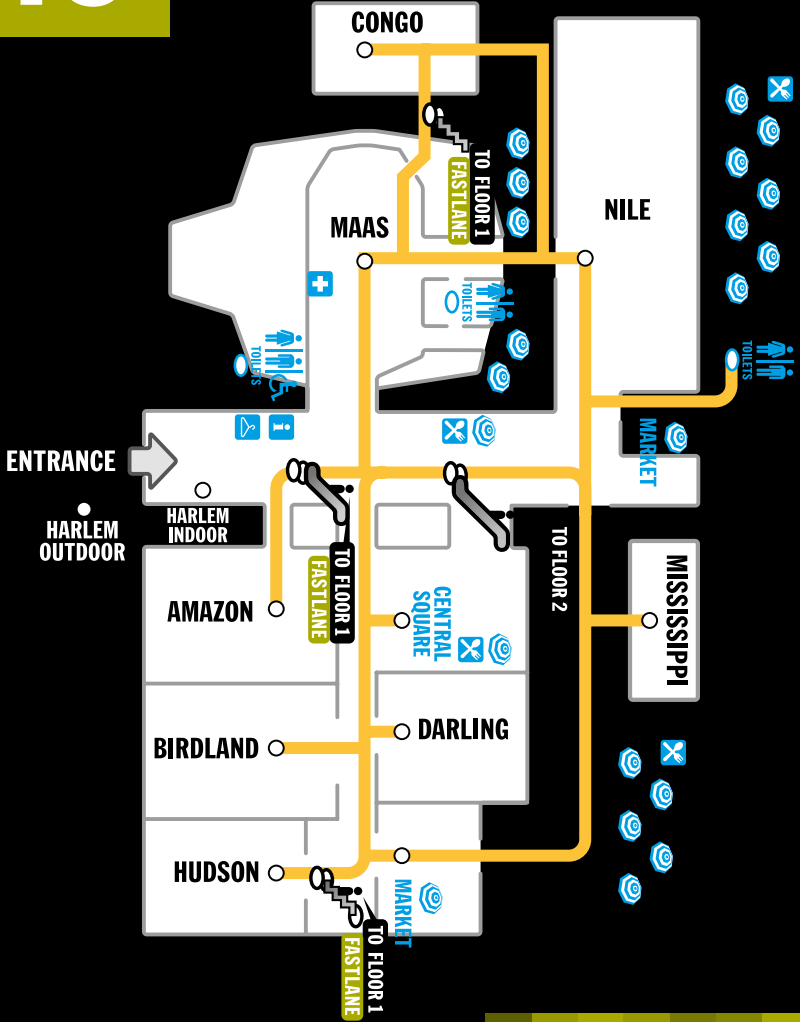

Together with this booklet you will find a CD with the acts that were presented at a showcase on the 24th of June, during this year's Jazz Day edition.

We are interested to meet you at the next Jazz Day spring 2012, to set up new opportunities together.

FLOORPLAN
SEA JAZZ

“As a longtime attendee of the North Sea Jazz Festival, I’m always wandering from the main stage performances to the smaller venues where acts from the Netherlands and other European countries attract crowds with their inspired, and oftentimes unusual, off-the-beaten-track music. That’s what I love so much about Dutch musicians, especially their energy and their sense of humor (which today is so rare in jazz that too often brands itself as a serious art music). My favorites are Han Bennink and Misha Mengelberg, both of whom are among the top jazz performers/improvisers in the world. I would add to my favorite list the late Willem Breuker, who also had a grand sense of humor in his music. Exemplary musicians all as well as talented entertainers.”
